DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is in response to Amendment filed on Jan. 26, 2004.
2. Claim 1 has been amended.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 1/26, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
4. In response to applicant's argument regarding claims 1-2 that the references fail to show processing data as recited in claims 1-2. Examiner respectfully disagrees the Bork does disclose the processing data by PC (see fig.1, element 10 and its description). Furthermore the reference teach the bluetooth module informing a bluetooth host (see fig.1, element 10, 43) that data received through a universal serial bus exists in the bluetooth module (see fig.11, elements 12, and 43, also see fig.25-26 element 72)) and the bluetooth host reading the data received by the bluetooth module in the step (a) through the USB when the bluetooth host is informed that received data exists in the step (b) (see fig.11, elements 10, 42, 44). Therefore, the rejection of the previous rejection of claims 1-2 is proper and remains the same.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bork (6,255,800).

Regarding claim 1, Bork discloses a bluetooth enabled mobile device charging cradle and system comprising the steps of: (a) a bluetooth module receiving data through a wireless channel (see fig.11, elements 42, 44 and its description); (b) the bluetooth module informing a bluetooth host that data received through a universal serial bus exists in the bluetooth module (see fig.11, elements 10, 43 and its description); (c) the bluetooth host reading the data received by the bluetooth module in the step (a) through the USB when the bluetooth host is informed that received data exists in the step (b) (see fig. 11, 10 and its description).

Regarding claim 2, Bork further discloses the bluetooth module informs the bluetooth host that the received data exists in the bluetooth module when the bluetooth module receives from the bluetooth host a request for checking whether the received data exists in the bluetooth module, in response to the request for checking whether the received data exists (see fig. 14, element 38 and its description).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 7-19 are allowed.
8. Claims 3-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
